Dear Dr. Sa'adeh,

We are pleased to support your participation in the conference ICPEAC, XXXI International Conference on Photonic, Electronic and Atomic Collisions, Deauville, France, July 23-31, 2019, to present results obtained at Elettra and in collaboration with our staff. In particular, you will present results on "Towards understanding the electronic structure and ion fragmentation patterns of indole and related compounds" and "An experimental and theoretical investigation of XPS and NEXAFS of nicotine, nicotinamide, and nicotinic acid molecules".

We will cover the meals, lodging and travel expenses upon presentation of the original receipts. Please contact our travel office who will book transport and accommodation.

Best regards,

Prof. Alfonso Franciosi

President and Chief Executive Officer
